Dear Sir

Declarations

Existing Residential Property Address: _____
(“Residential Property”)

I hereby declare and confirm the following, where applicable:-

1. the Residential Property is the only property that I own, singly or jointly
2. the Residential Property is for the occupation of one or more persons including myself.
3. I have no outstanding credit facility, either singly or jointly with another borrower for the purchase of any Property (including residential or non-residential property that is located in or outside Singapore) or the re-financing of such a credit facility, other than the Residential Property being financed.
4. I have no other credit facility, either singly or jointly with another borrower that is otherwise secured on any Property (including the Residential Property being financed, and any other residential property or non-residential property that is located in our outside Singapore), or the re-financing of such a credit facility, which is used to secure the credit facility.
5. Where I am applying for a credit facility for purchase of a HDB Flat or Executive Condominium directly from developer, I only own the Residential Property at the time of the said application and no other Property (including residential or non-residential property that is located in or outside Singapore) and will take steps, in accordance with the signed undertaking to the HDB, to sell the Residential Property.

Yours faithfully
